Anamorphic Art

Inspired by the work of Felice Varini, who paints architectural spaces, such as buildings, walls and streets. The paintings are characterized by one vantage point from which the viewer can see the illusion take form.

In our example, we feature line elements from the "Herb Anthony" pattern. We can preview what this would look like with a projector.

Inspiration

We've pulled elements from these two Lucienne Day pieces.

I THINK IT'S  REALLY IMPORTANT TO USE YOUR HANDS AND GET  CLOSE TO
 MATERIALS. TO BE UP CLOSE  TO
REAL THINGS LIKE RAIN  AND MUD;
TO HAVE CONTACT WITH NATURE.
